The Kelly Cortesi Scholarship Application for the 2010/2010 Senior Graduating Class
*Academics, Courage, Integrity and Compassion

Scholarship Criteria

Criteria will be based on the following:

Student:

- o Is a Putnam Valley High School college-bound senior graduating in June 2010;
- o Is in solid academic standing (85 or higher grade point average as tracked in semester prior to graduation); and
- o Has the character attributes related to the following:

~ Courage: The true ability to undertake tasks with no fear or intimidation and with fortitude. Kelly's willingness to undertake and face every situation and task, easy or difficult, with a smile, a "can-do" attitude, and still stand up for her beliefs – whether it be with her friends, her parents or her coaches and teachers was noted by all that knew her.

~ Integrity: The true ability to have a sense of honesty and truthfulness in not only your actions but your words. Kelly was well respected by her peers for not only acting on what was right and what was wrong but ensuring that those around her behaved in a similar manner. She held her friends and family to high standards of openness and reliability while being a good example of these behaviors herself.

~ Compassion: The true ability to treat others with concern, respect and care as well as undertake actions towards ensuring that other people come into contact with you are recipients of such behavior. Kelly's involvement in community services as well as her job as a camp counselor exemplified her love of kids and of those less fortunate and her ability to make so many people feel as if they were an exceptional person and friend.

How to apply

The application process will be as follows:

1. Completed application
2. Written essay*
3. Final semester/quarter transcript or signed notice from Guidance Counselor regarding GPA
4. Interview - Top three candidates will have an interview with select committee and board members

The written essay will give examples and reasons why the student has the character attributes and how they have exhibited and/or encouraged these in others. Students will be judged on how they consistently apply these attributes to their everyday life.

Students can be recommended separately by teachers, coaches, supervisors, parents and any other mentor. These recommendations are not required by the committee, but may be helpful in the selection process. These students MUST be encouraged to follow through with the essay and interview process on their own.
